An area rich in traditional culture, with numerous historical spots dotted throughout

Hakozakigu Shrine ①

This is one of the three great Hachiman shrines in Japan, and is famous for the god of victory that is enshrined here. This is why many warlords visited the shrine in the past, as well as a lot of people in the world of sports in the present day.

Hojoya Festival ①

This is a festival for the cherishing of all living things, to discourage killing, and to give thanks for a good harvest in autumn. During the festival period (September 12-18), several hundred stalls line the entire approach to the shrine.

Hanameguri (flower viewing) ①

At the west end of the shrine is a garden filled with hydrangea in June. Visitors can also enjoy viewing different kinds of seasonal varieties in the flower garden located on the approach, such as weeping cherry blossoms in spring, lilies, and winter peonies.

Higashi Park ②

This park, featuring impressive statues, is popular among local citizens and part of a walking route for beautiful seasonal flowers, such as cherry blossoms, azalea, hydrangea and roses.

Toka Ebisu Shrine ②

As it enshrines both the god of success in business, Ebisu, and the god of romantic relationships, Daikoku, this shrine is a popular place of worship especially among merchants in Hakata. It is also visited by a large number of people during the New Year festival period from January 8 to 11 every year. On January 9, there is a lively parade, joined by all the geigi in Hakata along with a host of flute musical players and drummers.

Kashiigu Shrine

This is one of the shrines in Japan whose rituals have an imperial envoy in attendance. The approach to the shrine is surrounded by lush greenery, and is a perfect place for strolling. After going through the gate, you will see a pond dotted with beautiful irises, the tower gate, and a huge Japanese cedar, before finally reaching the bright red main hall.
